

Business Succession and Transition Seminar

Planning to retire one day from being self-employed? This workshop is for you!

Do not leave your future to the last minute!

Join Jim, Galen, and Art to understand the before, during and after expectations of business succession and transition. There will be a 30 minute question period to cover related issues you wish to learn more about.

January 31st, 2018

1pm – 4pm

Small Business Centre

284B Wallbridge-Loyalist Road

Belleville, ON K8N 4Z5

Jim Nairn – Sunbelt Kingston, Vice President

Topic will include how to sell your business successfully.

After serving as a member of the Canadian Armed Forces, Jim acquired a Master's Degree in Business Administration. He has worked as a financial adviser and has owned his own business-to-business wholesale company.

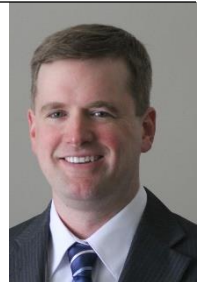

Jim is committed to learning about each client's unique needs and circumstances and negotiating a deal that will be a win-win for all involved. Jim ensures that business owners who have sacrificed so much growing their business, maximizes the value of their efforts and helps them enjoy their retirement while someone else continues to build upon their legacy.

Galen Nuttall – Freedom 55, Financial Security Advisor

Topic will include ensuring you are financially prepared for life after being a business owner.

Galen Nuttall started his career in the educational field and has since become a financial security advisor. He holds a Bachelor of Liberal Arts, Mathematics and Literature, as well as a Master of Education, Curriculum and Instruction.

Galen moved to financial advising so he could pursue his passion for helping people plan for their future and make the most of their hard-earned wealth. As a business owner himself, he has had to learn the ins and outs of taxation, income protection and business planning and seeks out opportunities to help others do the same.

Arthur Dolan – Succession Transition Strategies, Owner

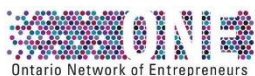

Topic will include transition planning for both your head and heart.

Art has over 50 years of marketing and sales experience and has operated his own consultancy firm for 15 years. Art has played a role in several mergers and acquisitions.

As an entrepreneur and corporate manager, Art is well qualified in the issues of emotional intelligence (EQ) and its application to successful initiatives. Art spent 3 years of intensive study in this field to launch his new business to help the small and medium-sized business owners understand and cope successfully with the personal stresses inherent in any privately-owned business transition.
